

Kroger signs national agreement with Captis Intelligence

LOS ANGELES, CA – November 28, 2018 / PR Newswire

Captis Intelligence, a leading provider of I-4 crime solutions (Intelligence, Information, Investigation, Identification) continues its rapid expansion internationally with its recent signing of Fortune 500 retailer Kroger (NYSE: KR).

Founded in 1883, Kroger is the largest supermarket chain in the United States by revenue, and the second largest general retailer in North America. Kroger's vast network of national retail stores include Dillons, King Soopers, City Market, Pay Less, Ralph's, Smith's, and Fred Meyer. The Captis I-4 system will be utilized by the national Kroger Asset Protection team based in Cincinnati and will be supported by the Captis corporate office located in Los Angeles.

The announcement comes in the wake of a major acceleration in growth for Captis which has recently signed 7 new retailers to national contracts involving nearly 20,000 individual locations. "The Captis I-4 is a game changer in Asset Protection" stated Chris McCarrick, Senior Manager of Asset Protection Solutions for Kroger. "Their solution elevates our capabilities and provides us with highly effective intelligence and identification capabilities" added McCarrick.

Partnering with Captis will allow Kroger enterprise access to the powerful I-4 system which unifies several industry-first technologies within 4 categories of Intelligence, Information, Investigation, and Identification. Features such as ODSI (On Demand Subject Identification), PRISM (Protective Research & Investigation in Social Media), and Solveacrine.com access, are just a few of the industry-first technologies that make up the Captis I-4 cloud-based system.

"Captis is very pleased to partner with Kroger, a worldwide leader with a highly advanced asset protection team" stated Dario Brebric, President/Co-Founder of Captis Intelligence. "We are looking forward to enhancing Kroger's capabilities with our I-4 solution, added Brebric
